BISHOP CHARLES BETTS GALLOWAY

THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE.

December 3rd to 8th, 1913, there was held in Natchez, Miss., the one hundredth session of the Mississippi Annual Conference, the first session having been held at Spring Hill, in Jefferson County, November 1st, 1813. The years that lie between these dates more than measure the history of the State of Mississippi, which did not take its place in the sisterhood of states until 1817; but they do not compass the history of Methodism in the Natchez country. For as early as January 1, 1799, Bishop Asbury had selected Tobias Gibson as a missionary to the settlements of the Southwest, and instructed him to proceed to his new field of labor as soon as the rigor of winter would permit.

The historic trip of this heroic missionary by horseback for six hundred miles, then by skiff and friendly flat-boat down the Cumberland, the Ohio, and the Mississippi rivers, began in the early spring of that year and ended with his arrival at Natchez about the end of March.

During the thirteen years intervening between the coming of Tobias Gibson and the formal organization of the Conference, the Mississippi Territory may be said to have formed a part of the "Western Conference," which was the official designation of that body embracing the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana, and Illinois. The strict accuracy of this statement must be qualified. It was not from the borders of the Western Conference that the missionary came, but from the South Carolina, and for the first few years Mr. Gibson continued his membership in that Conference. In the quadrennium between 1800 and 1804 the territory seems to have been formally transferred to the Western Conference, and by the General Conference of the latter year it was formally included with the territory of that Conference.

The first Methodist Society was organized in Washington, the territorial capital, and consisted of eight persons,—four men and four women; two of this little company, a man and his wife, were negro slaves. During the year Societies were organized at other points along the river, and to the South Carolina Conference of January, 1800, there were reported sixty members.

During the years that marked the connection with the South Carolina Conference Natchez was in the Georgia District. Such a fact strikes us with amazement when we think of the populous and prosperous States that now stand between the Atlantic Ocean and the Mississippi River, and of the thousands of missions, circuits, and stations that show the Century's growth of Methodism. Nor is the marvel lessened when we find the territory the next year forming a part of the Kentucky District of the Western Conference, and notice that the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Mississippi are represented in the District, over which William McKendree presided. The lines were shortened (!) the following year, for Natchez appears with Nashville and the Red River in the Cumberland District. It is well that there were no District Conferences in those days.

As noted above, Mr. Gibson reported sixty members as the fruitage of his first year of labor in the new field. The lone missionary reports a net gain of twenty at the end of the second year, and a like gain for the third year. The report for 1803 showed a membership of one hundred and two, of whom two were negroes,—probably our faithful slaves of the Washington church

In the decade between 1803 and 1813 the work grew steadily; new members were added, new churches were built, and deeply within the virgin soil were striking the roots of the mighty tree, "planted by the rivers of water," bearing a perennial fruitage, and whose "leaves were for the healing of the nations." New shepherds were sent to gather in and tend the growing flock, first Moses Floyd, then Hezekiah Harriman, and Abraham Amos. Good Scriptural names, these three!

April 5, 1804, died Tobias Gibson, the first missionary to the Southwest, and apostle to the Natchez Country. He was buried in Warren County, a few miles south of Vicksburg, where a marble column marks his last resting place. In 1805 came Learner Blackman and Nathan Barnes, and with them in their long journey through the almost trackless wilderness rode Lorenzo Dow, that eccentric but devoted man whose wandering footsteps were marked by traditions illustrating at once his oddities and his zeal.

During this year and under the leadership of Blackman, Barnes, and Dow was held the first campmeeting ever held south of the Tennessee line. It was held on Clark's Creek, six or eight miles from Port Gibson.

The next year witnessed the organization of the Mississippi District, with Learner Blackman as presiding elder, and consisting of four pastoral charges, manned as follows:

Natchez Circuit, Nathan Barnes and Thomas Lasley; Claiborne circuit, William Pattison; Wilkinson circuit, Caleb Cloud and Luther Taylor; Opelousas circuit, Elisha W. Bowman.

This constituted the effective force, though Harriman, whose health was broken, and Floyd, who had located, and James Griffing and Randall Gibson, the first men licensed to preach within the limits of the territory, were earnest assistants.

We cannot follow the record as it unfolds year by year. Mississippi and Louisiana now constitute the field of labor, to which is soon added Alabama as the settlements on the Alabama and Tombigbee rivers grew in number and importance. In 1810 we find the name of Samuel Sellers, the presiding officer of the first Annual Conference Session, and in 1811 that of its secretary, William Winans, destined to become the mightiest man in all the Southwest. In 1812 the historic Western Conference ceased to be, and its place was taken by the Ohio and the Tennessee Conferences, of the latter of which the Mississippi Territory formed a part. The membership had grown to 1,067 whites and 240 negroes.

In view of the growing importance of the work on the lower Mississippi the General Conference of 1812 authorized the establishment of an Annual Conference within this territory, and at the meeting of the Tennessee Annual Conference that year the time and place were appointed for the organization and holding of an Annual Conference in Mississippi, and although the unsettled condition of the country did not warrant the coming of one of the Bishops into the territory until 1816, the sessions were regularly held from 1813, and all of the business of an Annual Conference was transacted, except that of ordination. Of these earlier sessions Samuel Sellers was elected President and William Winans Secretary.

At the time of the setting apart of the work in the Territory, there was one Presiding Elder's District,—called the Mississippi District,—composed of nine appointments, lying principally in Mississippi and Louisiana, but probably touching Alabama at one point. With the organization of the Mississippi Conference two districts were formed, dividing between them the sections just indicated.

The session of the Conference in 1814 was held at the home of Rev. John Ford, in Marion County. It was a short and unimportant session and but for two facts in connection with it may have passed without mention. First, its location shows how the early settlers chose the rich valleys along the rivers, the Mississippi, the Pearl, and the Tombigbee—leaving for future settlement, the trackless pine forests, the source of future wealth

Secondly, the decision to hold the next Annual Session at Foster's, in Adams County, and the fact that it was not so held, gave rise to what was called the question of the "lost Conference."

For many years it was thought that the Conference of 1815 was not held. It is certain that it was not held at Foster's, and no journal of the session remains; but that a session was held is evident from the fact that the appointments appear in the General Minutes for that year, and several changes were made by transfer and admission on trial in the membership of the Conference. Rev. John G. Jones, the gifted and painstaking Historian of Methodism in Mississippi, has discovered the fact that it was held at Adams Camp Ground, in Amite County, the place for the meeting having been changed for reasons that do not now appear. Whatever the hinderances, they do not seem to have been permanent, for the brethren, before final adjournment, voted to hold the next session at Foster's, and the record shows that it was so held.

The Conference of 1816 was in session at Foster's, Samuel Sellers presiding, and the work of the second day was in progress when some one noted the approach of a solitary horseman; and, to their delight, Bishop Roberts, wearied with his long journey, rode into their midst. What will twentieth century Bishops, whirled across the country in Pullman sleepers, think of that horseback ride from Western Pennsylvania to Southern Mississippi, and what wonder that he was a day and a half late! The records of the session show that eleven preachers received their appointments, and that the membership of the Church was less than two thousand, of whom about twenty per cent were negro slaves.

The geographical boundaries of the new Conference are somewhat uncertain, but may be said to embrace the states of Louisiana, Mississippi, and an indefinite part of Alabama on the east, and of Texas on the west. Not all of this vast territory was occupied, of course; but later Conference records show annual sessions held in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and from Mississippi went Robert Alexander, the first Methodist Missionary to Texas.

From this period the history shows the continuous progress of two influences; the narrowing of geographical lines, and the more thorough cultivation of the field. The organization of the Alabama Conference was attended by the loss, not only of all the appointments in that State, but also some within the Northeastern limits of our own State. The Memphis Conference appropriated a strip from our Northern borders. The Louisiana Conferences left us only the Florida Parishes in that State. The organization of the North Mississippi Conference in 1870 caused the further drawing in of the lines toward the South. The General Conference of 1894 gave to the Louisiana Conference the Florida Parishes. But for every loss in area a more than compensating gain was found in the ever-growing membership in the territory that remained. Circuits and stations multiplied on every side; schools and colleges were established and equipped; the support of a rapidly increasing ministerial force was more adequately provided for; gifts to the benevolent work of the Church were increased; an orphanage has been built and a hospital projected. The little one has become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation for the Lord has hastened it in His time.

Many were the hinderances that opposed the work of our fathers; the trackless wilderness, the hostile Indians, the more unrelenting opposition of the Roman Catholic Church, and the lawless character of many of the early settlers. The Abolition agitation of the second quarter of the Century and the rupture of the Church in 1844 weakened their hands. The Civil War overwhelmed them in desolation and sorrow. The horrors of war were lost in the greater horrors of "reconstruction," and the fair land was plundered while the people were weeping at the graves of their dead. But no desolation could appall them; no sorrow weaken their faith in God; no "policy of disintegration and absorption" could seduce them from the sense of their high mission. Their only permanent loss was that of the thousands of negro members, and this loss they tried to repair by means of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church.

The growth of Southern Methodism since the War has been phenomenal and in this growth Methodism in Mississippi has had her share.

The last session of the Mississippi Conference reports as follows:

Preachers, 196; local preachers, 156; total membership, 57,367; societies, 568; Sunday Schools, 446; Sunday School scholars, 31,738; pastoral charges, 161; parsonages, 152; value of parsonages, $407,455.00; number of churches, 491; value of churches, $1,667,210.00; paid for foreign missions, $9,081.75; paid for home missions, $9,671.76; paid for church extension, $5,130.26; paid for education, $3,979.83; paid American Bible Society, $1,069.10; paid preachers in charge, $119,727.00; paid presiding elders, $14,254.70. The total amount raised from all sources for all purposes, amounted to $501,828.34.

RESOLUTIONS REGARDING THE VANDERBILT MATTER.

WHEREAS, Our honored Bishops have been made the target of criticism by certain persons in the Church, and by others on the outside, because of their action in vetoing the acceptance by the Vanderbilt Board of Trust of the proposed Carnegie gift of $1,000,000 to the Medical Department of the University; and,

WHEREAS, The four members of the Vanderbilt Board of Trust who entered a protest against the acceptance of said gift have also been severely assailed, it being claimed by some that neither the veto of the Bishops, nor the protest of the minority members of the Board of Trust represents the real sentiment and conviction of Southern Methodists generally; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, 1, That we hereby heartily endorse both the Bishops' veto, and the protest of the minority of the Board of Trust in regard to the acceptance of said gift.

2. That we are in thorough accord with the position and convictions of the Bishops as expressed in their "veto" and message to the Church at large, and also with the sentiments and attitude expressed by the minority of the Board of Trust in their protest.

3. That we hereby pledge our unqualified sympathy and support to the Bishops and the minority members of the Board of Trust in the discharge of the weighty but unpleasant responsibilities resting upon them in this and the whole Vanderbilt matter.

4. That we hereby express our hearty appreciation and approval of the strong and faithful defense made by Bishops Hoss and Candler, and the editors of the Nashville Christian Advocate and the New Orleans Christian Advocate in behalf of the action of the Bishops and the minority Trustees in this important matter.

REPORT No. 1 OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren—We have carefully considered the request of the Presbyterian Synod to join them in an effort to secure the repeal of that section of our State Constitution prohibiting the gift to any church institution by bequest, also the resolution of brethren of our Conference looking to the same end. We heartily approve the object of these papers, and, therefore,

RECOMMEND, That the Chair shall appoint a Committee of Three to co-operate with our brethren of the Presbyterian and other churches for securing the desired amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

A. F. WATKINS, Chairman.

H. M. ELLIS, Secretary.

The following report of the Methodist Hospital Commissioners was read and received:

REPORT OF METHODIST HOSPITAL COMMISSIONERS.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren—Your Board of Commissioners of the Methodist Hospital begs to submit the following report:

We found it desirable at our annual meeting, in justice to that part of the Memphis Conference within the State of Kentucky, to change the name of the Hospital by dropping the limiting term, "Tri-State." The name of the institution is now METHODIST HOSPITAL, and we believe this simple and comprehensive name will better answer the purpose and fully satisfy all persons interested.

The work of creating interest and securing funds for this most needed institution has gone steadily forward. In the two and a half years we have been at work more than $91,000.00 have been secured in signed subscriptions, about $25,000.00 of which have been paid. Our Field Secretary, Rev. H. M. Ellis, has visited throughout the four participating Conferences as he has found opportunity, and almost everywhere the Christian people showed appreciation of the enterprise and were ready to aid with their means.

We have paid all but the last note on our lot (which fronts 230 feet on Union Ave., by 150 feet deep), and are now making an appeal to our subscribers that we may promptly meet this payment. Of course our friends will take care of this.

At its annual meeting the Board adopted the plan of apportioning the necessary $300,000.00 among the four Annual Conferences, and then on down to districts and charges. This plan has met with general approval. Every district visited by a representative of the Hospital has promptly and without a dissenting voice, accepted its apportionment, and appointed committees, or made other provision for distributing this apportionment among its charges. So far, every charge visited by the Secretary, where the pastor has showed a live interest in the cause, has more than paid its apportionment.

The Presiding Elders of the Memphis Conference, after making the apportionment to their several charges, each agreed to arrange the apportionments for and co-operate with the Field Secretary and his helpers in a sweeping and comprehensive campaign of his district. We believe this plan promises great success, and we respectfully urge its adoption in the other three conferences as well. We believe every effort should be made to secure during the coming year the entire amount necessary for this most important and most neglected cause of our Church.

Everywhere the Sunday Schools appreciate the appropriateness of their building the Children's Department. Where the Secretary gets the opportunity to present this work to a Sunday School he finds no trouble in securing its co-operation and the pledge of the needed "One Dollar per Member." The older pupils are ready to give, or subscribe their dollar or more each; and with the gleaner plan our Secretary has adopted, each child who will do so is made an Agent for the Children's Department of the Methodist Hospital for one month or six weeks, and the share of the primary department of the Sunday School is secured in cash within that time. Then each helping child is the happy wearer of a beautiful pin which is ever a reminder of this service for Christ and the little sufferers He so loves. We earnestly ask all our pastors and Sunday School superintendents to enlist their schools in this important work. It will not only greatly aid the Hospital cause, but will prove an inspiration to the school and a blessing to each individual worker enlisted. Our Field Secretary, Rev. H. M. Ellis, 2086 Union Ave., Memphis, Tenn., will gladly furnish you all the details of the plan, the necessary gleaners, programs for a Sunday School Hospital Day when reports are made, and the reward pins for all the little helpers, if you will only apply to him. These will cost you nothing.

We have again re-elected Rev. H. M. Ellis, Field Secretary, and we earnestly bespeak for him your confidence and hearty co-operation. If you will but give him these, and the chance to see your people and secure their financial support for this most needed institution of our Church, we feel sure our Southern Methodism will soon be supplied with such an ample and well-equipped hospital as shall take away our present reproach and add a great arm of power to our service.

The term of office of your Commissioners, namely: Rev. J. T. Leggett, Rev. J. R. Jones, Mr. I. C. Enochs, Mr. L. N. Dantzler, and Mr. W. E. Lampton, expires with this session of your Conference, and we respectfully request that you elect their successors.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. SHERARD, President,
L. M. STRATTON, Secretary.

On motion, J. T. Leggett, J. R. Jones, I. C. Enochs, L. N. Dantzler, and W. E. Lampton, were elected to succeed themselves as Commissioners of the Methodist Hospital.

H. M. Ellis, Field Secretary of the Methodist Hospital, addressed the Conference.

Report No. 1 of the Board of Missions was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT No. 1 OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren—We, your Conference Board, of Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

We respectfully recommend the election of Rev. Geo. H. Galloway to fill the vacancy in the Board caused by the appointment of Rev. Geo. H. Thompson to the Presiding Eldership. We also recommend the election of Bro. W. E. Harris, of Flora, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge A. G. Norrell.

We submit the following resolutions which it is hoped will be unanimously adopted.

"WHEREAS, We are informed by Dr. W. W. Pinson, our General Secretary, that our General Board of Missions pays out annually upwards of $7,500.00 in interest on delayed collections, and,

"WHEREAS, This sum is sufficient to support three married missionaries in the foreign field; therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, 1. That we, the pastors and laymen of the Mississippi Annual Conference pledge ourselves to begin our missionary campaign in January, or as early thereafter as practicable;

"2. That we designate the second Sunday in April as Missionary Day, and that we do our utmost to raise our assessment for Home and Conference Missions by April 15th, and our assessment for Foreign Missions by July 1st."

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

We, your Board of Directors of the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home, beg leave to submit to you the following report concerning the Home during the past Conference year.

We have had a good year in many respects. The health has been good, but we regret we will have to report the death of one of our sixteen-year-old girls. The Home has been financially embarrassed all the year, yet it has not suffered.

We have had a splendid school with five young lady teachers, but no music teacher, this year, for the want of funds.

We have seven girls in college, and one in the Agricultural High School. The expenses of all these girls are paid by friends and relatives.

Four boys are in college, working their way and doing well.

They have morning and evening prayers, daily, with Epworth League, Sunday School, and preaching service every Sunday.

Fifteen of the children joined the church this year.

At the annual meeting of the Board last spring, the Manager was authorized to buy a farm consisting of 200 acres, at a cost of $7,000.00, about three miles northwest of the city of Jackson, and the Home, and to solicit contributions for the payment of said farm. It gives us great pleasure to state that Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warmack, of Pluto, Yazoo County, Mississippi, made the Home a present of the purchase. We desire here to thank him and his good wife openly for the very liberal contribution, and we feel sure that a rich reward awaits them in a brighter and better world beyond.

We now gladly report all buildings paid for and the Home clear of debt.

TO THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Your Committee begs leave to report as follows:

With a true sense of gratitude to God, for the continuous growth and abiding aggressive opposition to even the use of vinous, malt or spiritous liquors, and recognizing the fact that our own Church and Conference has ever stood in the very van from the earliest days of the fight against this evil of evils; therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, 1st, That we hereby pledge our active and prayerful support to the Anti-Saloon League, and by individual influence, we will, as far as possible, aid its Executive Committee, and Special Committee, to procure at the hands of the Legislature, so soon to assemble, the further needed restrictions.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION FOR 1913.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH:

DEAR BRETHREN—Your Board of Church Extension submits the following report:

We have completed another year of Church Extension work, making a total of thirty-one years. The tabulated results of the last year and of the preceding years tell the story of the sound judgment exercised by the General Conference of 1882 in laying the foundation for what has been done in the Church Extension field.

The total amount of money invested in churches and parsonages is $3,966,441.76. We have 16,827 churches, 8,692 of which have been aided by Church Extension money.

We have 5,449 parsonages, 2,261 of which have been helped by the Church Extension movement.

We have now 2,770 homeless congregations, and 1,093 pastoral charges without parsonages.

From the beginning of the Church Extension work in the Mississippi Conference, 278 churches and 73 parsonages have been helped to the amount of $78,645.00. The total contributions of our Conference to Church Extension, from the beginning up to and including the 30th Assessment, have been $79,163.81.

CONFERENCE LOAN FUNDS.

It is now generally understood that the Conference Board may loan part or all of its funds where the desired end can be accomplished as well by loan as by donation, and the part thus loaned shall become a part of the Conference Board Loan Fund. This loan fund is administered through the General Board.

The Loan Fund of our Conference is now $1,525.24. We would respectfully suggest that our pastors encourage our people to apply for loans rather than donations, because money loaned to churches is not lost while, in many cases, money donated is lost to the Church.

Conference Board funds once loaned to churches and parsonages, become a part of the Conference Board Loan Fund, and cannot be appropriated for donation purposes, but is to be loaned again and again as it is returned to the General Office.

GENERAL BOARD LOAN FUND.

We are glad to note that the loan fund of the General Board has passed the half-million dollar mark. This fund at the close of the last fiscal year was $501,387.16, an increase for the year of $66,222.66.

The Corresponding Secretary has been authorized by the General Board to continue his aggressive campaign for another half-million dollars.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BIRTHDAY JARS.

We now have 33 of these jars in use within our Conference.

CHURCH EXTENSION LITERATURE.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the excellence as well as the abundance of Church Extension Literature published by the General Office.

The Church Extension Handbook for 1913 is rich in information, and deserves to be read carefully by our pastors and laymen. Dr. McMurry deserves a vote of thanks for giving us such a splendid piece of work. We would call special attention to the booklet "Priming for the Pump." All the leaflets and charts published by the Board may be had free of charge if you will only write for them.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was read and adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.
TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

DEAR BRETHREN—Your Committee deplores the fact that so far as their observation goes, there is little improvement in the observance of the Sabbath. While it is true that the Postal Department of our Government has modified its former Sunday methods, so that their working force has been reduced on that day, yet over and against this hopeful sign, is to be seen the increase in the attendance upon golf and baseball upon this holy day. The automobile is a great convenience and has doubtless come to stay, but it is also a great hindrance to the proper observance of the Christian Sabbath. In many places it conveys numbers to the House of God, who are too far away to walk, yet at the same time, we are forced to believe that it carries many more on pleasure trips, who should be in their seats in the Sanctuary.

Multitudes from across the sea are coming to our shores. Their residence was formerly limited largely to territory north of the Ohio River, but now they can be found located in nearly every section of our Southland. They have brought with them their continental views of the Sabbath as a day of recreation, or at best, a day of recreation and rest. As ministers of the Gospel, we must stand in our places and by giving line upon line and precept upon precept, instruct the people of this nation, who claim the Lord as their God, that this is His day, a day of rest and worship.

We have before us a communication from the Sunday League of America and wish to commend the work of this organization and to advise our preachers to welcome its General Secretary, Dr. Edward Thompson, whenever and wherever they can.

Dr. Pinson, our efficient Missionary Secretary, told us the other night that at no time while he was visiting the Foreign Field, did he find a place large enough to contain the people who came to hear the Gospel. With a few exceptions, we have room and to spare in our churches in this country on the Sabbath day and men and women who have promised before God to attend upon the ordinances of His Sanctuary are riding about or merely resting, without even looking in the direction from "whence all blessings flow." God grant that the people's hearts and consciences may be aroused concerning this solemn day and may join in singing as they turn their feet toward the Sanctuary and their hearts to the throne of grace.

"We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs
High as the heavens our voices raise,
And earth with her ten thousand tongues
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise."

THOMAS B. CLIFFORD, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE,

DEAR BRETHREN—We, your Committee on the State of the Church: beg leave to submit the following report:

We are delighted to say that this, our centennial year, has been one of material gain and spiritual prosperity. Our presiding elders and pastors have sounded an optimistic note in their reports.

A gain of about two thousand members has been reported.

A revival spirit has characterized our work, which has made this a year of evangelism throughout our bounds.

The power of God has been with our people, for which we are profoundly grateful to our Father in Heaven.

While our hearts are grateful to God for the successes and victories of the year just closed, we realize there is much at hand for us to do. There are voices calling the Church to great zeal and activity in its opposition to the forces of evil. We should take courage and go forward in the strength of His might, to make the year, upon which we are soon to enter, the best in the history of our Conference in winning souls for Christ.

As pastors and people, let's fervently work and pray for a great revival of religion that will arouse the back-slidden and save the lost. By lifting up a standard of righteousness which has ever made Methodism a mighty force, and following Christ as our great Leader, we shall come again, bearing our sheaves with us.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. JONES,

For the Committee.

Rev. R. A. Meek, D. D., Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, addressed the Conference.

The following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That we have heard Dr. Meek, the Editor of our Conference Organ, with pleasure and appreciation, and that we pledge him our continued and increased co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

M. B. SHARBROUGH,

O. S. LEWIS.

The report of the Committee on Publishing Interests was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

DEAR BRETHREN—We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, beg leave to submit the following report:

From the exhibit from the Publishing House, we note with great satisfaction, evidence of considerable improvement. Each of the Houses, Nashville, Dallas, and Richmond, has shown a net gain for the year ending March 1st, 1813. This is the more noticeable since the Branch House at Dallas showed quite a deficit for the year preceeding. The new Branch established at Richmond, Va., has met with success during its first year. We believe that since the opening of the Panama Canal, and, therefore, the increasing importance of New Orleans, as a commercial center, we should have a Book Depository in that city.

Apparently twelve months ago, the Methodist Review was as good as it could be, yet it has improved with each issue during the current year. We rejoice at the fact that it maintains so exalted a position among the periodicals of like nature, not only in our own country, but in the world. Southern Methodist laymen and preachers should be proud of their Quarterly Review.

The change from a weekly to a monthly publication of The Epworth Era has proved to be practical, and it is believed by the publishers it will be self-sustaining. We regard The Epworth Era as eminently worthy of our support.

The Missionary Voice is an able advocate of the great cause of Missions and should be widely circulated among our people.

We rejoice in the fact that our Sunday School Literature continues to increase in circulation.

The Nashville Advocate is ably edited by Dr. T. N. Iry, and easily ranks among the leading religious papers of our land. We most heartily commend this great publication as being entirely worthy of the loyal support of our preachers and people.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate is a blessing to our Church, and while we are glad that the circulation is as large as it is, we feel that it should be increased to at least 20,000, in Mississippi alone. We note with interest, the excellent financial condition of The Advocate, and for this tender our congratulations to its publisher, Chas. O. Chalmers. We have great cause for rejoicing over the fact that its brilliant editor, Dr. Robert A. Meek, has been prevailed upon to continue as Editor, until his present term expires.

We endorse unreservedly the firm stand taken by both Dr. Ivy and Dr. Meek in the Vanderbilt-Carnegie matter, and are certain that their splendid editorials have done much toward making more loyal to the interests of the Church, the Hosts of Southern Methodists.

We commend the tireless efforts of our Colporteur, Rev. G. W. Bachman, and are glad to note that he expects to continue in this great work.

We recommend that all of our pastors look more carefully after the distribution of our literature in the houses of our people, as we feel sure that such is the only method by which the literature can be widely circulated.

We recommend the re-election of C. W. Crisler as a member of the Publishing Committee of The New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

I. W. COOPER, Chairman.

ELMER C. GUNN, Secretary.

RESOLVED, 4th, That each member of this body and all the preachers of the State are hereby urged to write or interview the Senators and members of the House of Representatives for their respective counties and urge them to vote for the passage of such a law.

REV. CLAIBORNE McDONALD.

He was born in Covington County, Miss., Oct. 21, 1836. His parents were Hugh and Catherine (McCollum) McDonald, who had migrated from Richmond County, North Carolina. In 1852 he went to his grandfather's in North Carolina, to help in caring for the old man, and attended school near the grandfather's home. Later he attended Bennettsville Academy in South Carolina, and still later the Lovensburg High School in North Carolina. In 1857, he returned to Mississippi and taught school at Pleasant Grove, now Mt. Olive.

While hearing a sermon by Dr. Fullenwider in the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Olive, July 12, 1857, he was converted; and in September joined the Methodist Protestant Church. He was licensed to preach on Oct. 10. He served as a local preacher and taught school until November, 1858, when he entered the itinerancy. His first work was as junior preacher, under Rev. Wm. McCormick on the Chickasha Circuit; and he did most of the work because his senior was very feeble. In 1859 and '60 he served the Bucatunna Circuit. In 1861 he was pastor of Clarke Circuit; but in May of that year he entered the Confederate Army—Wayne Rifles, Thirteenth Mississippi Regiment. At Corinth, Miss., Union City, Tenn., and then in the Army of Northern Virginia he saw active service. At the battle in front of Richmond he was wounded. In 1863 he was made Chaplain of the Twenty-first Mississippi Regiment, and served as such until the end of the war.

He was appointed by the President of his Conference to a small circuit in Wayne County, which he served, teaching school for a living, until the close of the conference year. In 1866 he was on the Waynesboro Circuit, teaching school and studying dentistry as well. In 1867-68 he served the Strong River Circuit, and in 1869-70 the Enon Circuit.

He was Secretary of his Conference when the union of that Conference with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was consummated. His first charge in our Church was Morton, which he served during 1872-73-74. In 1875-76 he served Forest and Lake; Hillsboro in 1877; Raleigh in 1878; Newton in 1879; Trenton, 1880-82; Strong River, 1883-84; Morton, 1885-87. In 1888-91 he was Presiding Elder of the Woodville District, and of the Brandon District in 1892-95. In 1896 he was pastor at Morton and Forest; 1897-98, Caseyville; 1899-1901, at Providence; 1903, at Sartartia; 1904-05, at Benton; 1906-07-08, at Lake. At the Conference held at Yazoo City in 1908 he asked for the superannuated relation.

He then removed to Pelahatchie, where he made his home until his translation.

Brother McDonald was twice married—to Miss Eliza S. Sims in November, 1868, who bore two children; and, after her death, to Miss Rachel R. Flannagan, of Morton, Miss., who bore nine children. All of his children and the second wife survive him.

He lived a long and useful life, having served one year as a local preacher, fifty years as an active itinerant, and more than four years on the honor roll.

He was a good preacher, a faithful pastor, and a wise administrator of the Church's affairs. He was a man of strong convictions, a genuine Scotsman, as his name indicates—a Christian Scotchman. He was careful in his plans and thoroughly systematic in all his work. He kept for years a rather full diary. He was true to his Church, its regulations and customs. He was greatly loved by the people whom he served, and by his brethren of the Conference. Shortly before his death, he dictated a loving message to his brethren. It was published in the Advocate at New Orleans. He was a patient sufferer, and met death unafraid. A few days before the end came he said to his family: "Watch the clock, the minute my breath leaves me, I am entering Heaven." On April 1, at one o'clock and five minutes after, the Lord said, "It is enough, come up higher."

The funeral services were held in the village church, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. H. W. Featherstun, D. D.; Rev. J. M. Weems, D. D.; Rev. A. F. Watkins, D. D.; Rev. J. M. Morse, Rev. A. M. Broadfoot, Rev. C. C. Griffin, Rev. W. N. Roberts, pastor of the Baptist Church in Pelahatchie, and Rev. O. S. Lewis. He was laid to rest in the cemetery at Pelahatchie by loving hands. Farewell, my brother; we shall meet you again.

J. T. ABNEY.

JOHN WESLEY SANDELL.

John Wesley Sandell was born Sept. 18, 1829, at the Sandell home, three miles northwest of Magnolia, Miss., and passed to his eternal reward from his home in Magnolia, May 17, 1913.

Young Sandell spent his early life on the farm, where he grew to manhood, availing himself of such educational advantages as were offered. For a time he superintended a large plantation near the home of his nativity under the regime of slavery. Later he entered the mercantile business at Magnolia in partnership with Dr. J. H. Laney, who was both a dentist and a minister of the Gospel.

Heeding the call of his country for volunteers, the subject of this sketch enlisted in the service of the Confederacy, leaving Magnolia on April 29, 1862, as Second Lieutenant of Quinn's Guards, afterward known as Company K of the Thirty-ninth Mississippi Regiment of Infantry. He was soon promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant, which position he held till captured in the siege of Port Hudson, July 9, 1863. As a prisoner of war he was transported to Johnson's Island, where he was held till the close of the war. A surviving member of his company remembers Brother Sandell's war record as that of a brave and faithful soldier, who never shirked a duty nor quailed in the presence of danger. He sometimes preached to the soldiers in camp, neither the strenuousness of army life nor the demoralizing influences incident thereto deterring him from the exercise of the sacred functions of the Gospel ministry.

Following the death of Dr. Otkin, the first Chaplain, Brother Sandell was elected Chaplain of Stogdell Camp, No. 334, U. C. V., which office he held at the time of his death. One of his last appearances in public was on Decoration Day, April 26, at the Magnolia Cemetery, when he officiated as Chaplain in the ceremonies incident to the decoration of the graves of some 200 Confederate soldiers. On this occasion an original poem from his pen was read by one of the Daughters of the Local Chapter of the U. D. C.

Brother Sandell was married three times. His first wife was Louisa Thompson, to whom he was married Dec. 11, 1856. To them were born two sons: Hugh Murray, born Sept. 29, 1857; died Jan. 6, 1872; and Daniel Ford, born Nov. 12, 1859; died Sept. 28, 1861. The mother of these sons died Sept. 17, 1862.

The second marriage was to Permelia Louisa Powell, Sept. 10, 1865. This union was dissolved by the death of the wife on Dec. 12, 1893. The last marriage, Sept. 15, 1894, was to Mary L. Simmons, who survives to mourn his departure.

The following facts relating to the religious and ministerial life of Brother Sandell are gathered from a record kept in his family Bible and from private memoranda found among his papers after his death:

In 1855, at the age of twenty-six years, he was received into the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Topisaw Church, now known as Topisaw Campground. Two years later, on July 4, 1857, he was licensed to preach, the original license, still in a state of preservation, being signed by the late J. G. Jones as presiding elder. His gifts were exercised in the local rank for thirteen years, while he followed the profession of teaching. His ordination papers show that he was ordained Deacon at Canton, Miss., Dec. 1, 1861, and Elder at Brookhaven, Miss., Dec. 4, 1866, Bishop Robert Paine officiating in both instances. In December, 1870, he was admitted into the traveling connection on trial in the Mississippi Conference.

The record of appointments served by Brother Sandell is as follows: Holmesville, 1871-1872; Amite, 1873; Bogue Chitto, 1874; St. Helena, 1875; China Grove, 1876; Rocky Springs, 1877-1878; Magnolia, 1879-1881; Pearlinton, 1882; Meadville, 1883-1884; East Feliciana, 1885; Lake, 1886; Springfield, 1887-1888; supernumerary, 1889; Beauregard, 1890; Franklinton, 1891; Wilkinson, 1892; supernumerary, 1893-Sept. 1900; Fernwood, 1900 (part of the year), Lincoln, 1901; Bogue Chitto, 1902; Osyka, 1903-1905; superannuated, 1906-1913. Thus it appears that he was a minister of the Gospel for fifty-six years, and that for nearly forty-three years of this time he was a member of the Mississippi Conference.

The writer's impression of Brother Sandell as a pastor was that he was diligent and painstaking, attending with great care to the smallest details of a pastor's work. Believing in the dignity and importance of the work in which he was engaged, he attended to it in a business-like way.

In his views as expressed privately and publicly, Brother Sandell was thoroughly evangelical. He delighted to see what he called the old-time revival fires kindled on the altars of the Church. He loved his own Church and believed that the doctrines of Methodism constitute the best statement of the doctrines of the Holy Scripture; but his love for Methodism did not render him intolerant toward other evangelical denominations. He loved all God's people. He was fervent in prayer. It was a blessing to hear his trembling voice leading the congregation in its supplication to the throne of grace. He loved the house of God more and more to the last, and if he was absent from worship on Sunday morning it was known that physical infirmities had kept him away.

Brother Sandell delighted to preach, and neglected no opportunity to do so as long as his physical strength would permit. He was sweet-spirited in retirement. With him subjective weakening and physical decline did not result in that morbid condition that sees the Church being degraded and the world growing worse. Never a robust man, he realized that in his weakness God was his strength. Having put his hand to the plow in the long ago, he resolutely went forward without looking back. He did not set out to build without first having counted the cost. "For the joy that was set before him," like his Master, he "endured the cross, despising the shame," and the joy made light the cross he bore.

In his last illness Brother Sandell lingered for two weeks, the last several days of which he lay in a comatose condition, from which he aroused at intervals for a few lucid moments. His last periods of consciousness were passed in full view of impending death. At such periods it was a benediction to be about his couch. He calmly talked about death, and expressed the wish that all his friends might be present to witness how peacefully a Christian can die. He hastened in the race with death to dictate messages of love and counsel to relatives and friends. He called by name many of the brethren of the Mississippi Conference and requested that they should be informed of his affection for them in his last hours. To the little children who gazed upon his wasted form he spoke words of endearment and gave most wholesome advice. For the smallest effort to contribute to his comfort he did not fail to express his gratitude, declaring himself unworthy of such kindness. He entered most heartily into the prayers offered at his bedside, responding with fervent amens.

As long as speech was afforded, passage after passage of Scripture and line after line of familiar hymns were heard to fall from his trembling lips, and even when the voice became too husky to be intelligible, occasional words of praise and of transport could be caught by the ears of the anxious attendants. Toward the end came clearly and distinctly the words of the old hymn:

“Jesus can make a dying-bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.”

On the afternoon of the holy Sabbath, May 18, the body was borne to the Magnolia Methodist Church and placed before the chancel, hard by the seat he had been accustomed to occupy through the hour of worship. The writer was assisted in the funeral service by Revs. J. C. Ellis and B. W. Lewis, of the Mississippi Conference, and R. L. Bunyard, pastor of the Magnolia Baptist Church. From the church the body was carried by loving hands to its last resting place in the Magnolia Cemetery. In his death a disconsolate widow is left to mourn a devoted husband; a community suffers the loss of one of its most honored citizens; the Mississippi Conference loses a worthy veteran from its ranks; and the militant Church has made a contribution to the Church triumphant.

We shall see our fallen comrade again, and in a fairer clime, when for us life's fleeting day is done and we go home to our Father's house of many mansions.

J. A. MOORE.

REV. J. M. WEEMS, D. D.

James Madison Weems, the son of Samuel R. and Mary Ann Rhodes Weems, was born in Scott County, Miss., nine miles south of Lake, on July 14, 1846. He joined the Church at Carr's Church in September, 1860. He joined the Confederate Army in July, 1863, and surrendered with Jos. E. Johnston in North Carolina, on April 26, 1865. He went to school in 1866, and was licensed to preach that summer by a quarterly conference held at Boykin, Smith County, Miss. He supplied Ocohay charge in 1868. In 1869 he served as junior supply under Rev. H. P. Lewis on the Mt. Carmel charge. At the close of that year he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference at Jackson, Miss. In 1870 he served as preacher in charge on the Mt. Carmel Circuit. In 1871 he served the Carthage Circuit, then in the Jackson District. In December of that year he was ordained Deacon at Meridian by Bishop Kavanaugh. This writer was ordained with him. In 1872, he again served the Carthage Circuit, as he did also the next year. In December, 1873, he, with this writer, was ordained Elder. He had been married on December 13, 1872, to Miss Elizabeth Dawkins, who died in April, 1874, leaving him an infant daughter, whom they named Zula. She is now the wife of Rev. Jno. A. Moore of this Conference. In 1874, he served the Brownsville Circuit. In 1875, '76, '77, and '78, he was pastor at Hazlehurst. On Feb. 17, 1876, he was married to Miss Sophie Galloway, who survives him. Only one child, a daughter, came to them. She died in infancy. He was at Shubuta in 1879; at Moss Point in 1880, '81, '82, and '83; at Enterprise in 1884 and '85. He was Presiding Elder on the Brookhaven District during the years of 1886, '87 and '88. At the Conference of 1888, he was sent as a missionary to Mexico, where during the years of 1889, '90, '91 and '92 he served as Presiding Elder of the Mexico District, Central Mexico Mission Conference. Returning to Mississippi, he served the Brookhaven station in 1893. He was Presiding Elder of the Vicksburg District in 1894, '95, '96, and '97; the Brookhaven District in 1898; he was at Central Church, Meridian, in 1899, 1900 and 1901; and again on the Vicksburg District in 1902; at Yazoo City in 1903, '04, '05, and '06; on the Forest, later Newton, District, in 1906 and '07; at Shubuta and Quitman in 1909. At the close of that year he was sent to First Church, Laurel, where his ministry and life found their close far into the fourth year of his pastorate there. Thus for nearly forty-six years he wrought faithfully and efficiently in the Methodist itineracy.

I was in the Brookhaven District during his first term as its Presiding Elder, and was impressed with the unusual efficiency of his administration. The country charges grew in liberality and got larger visions of their obligations and opportunities during his service there. He greatly quickened the Missionary spirit, and in every way set the district far ahead of any degree of prosperity it had known since the war. I have often declared his Presiding Eldership on that district the best I have ever known anywhere and by anybody. The section and the time were fully ripe and sorely in need for what he brought them.

During those three years he preached, especially in the country places where he was ever at his best, as if inspired, and he really was. He was not what we call "an occasions preacher"—he was never at his best preaching before an Annual Conference or on a college commencement occasion. But at a country quarterly meeting on Sunday morning, or even on Saturday with but few others than the members of the quarterly conference present, he would thrill his audiences, rising at times to heights of eloquence that astonished me.

It was during this time—in 1887—that being deeply impressed with his fine, strong expositions of the Word, and knowing how he had toiled to reach such excellence, for his educational advantages had been very meager, I induced the Kavanaugh College, of which I was president, to confer upon him, pro causa honoris, the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was worthy.

Dr. Weems was a well-rounded Methodist itinerant—a revivalist, a good pastor, as well as a preacher of unusual power. In his pastoral ministrations he was so sympathetic and tender, so wise and careful that his people were drawn strongly to him. He was a church builder as well. Two of the handsomest and best arranged churches in our Conference—the one at Yazoo City and the First Church at Laurel—stand as monuments to his fine architectural taste, undying energy, and business sense.

To the very end of his long term of service he was progressive as well as aggressive. A loyal son of his Church, he kept step with the changes she adopted. He organized Epworth Leagues when they were made an institution of his Church, and learned how to keep them going. He fostered the Women's Missionary Societies. He used the Order of Worship adopted by his Church and her Hymn-book. Among the last things that he did was to introduce into his Church at Laurel the individual communion cup. He was too great a man to be either a foggy or a crank about anything.

Dr. Weems' faith was simple and strong. Out of it grew an optimism that was splendid. Though menaced and tortured during, we know not how many, weary months, by the gnawing of an insidious malady at his vitals, yet he never lost the sunshine of manner that characterized him, and he greeted us all as we visited him with a voice and manner as cheery as ever. The day before his death, he sat with us and talked and laughed in his old way; and the last utterance that fell on our ears was a rollicking jest, as he was borne on a stretcher up the stairway to the operating room in the Sanitarium: "See me; I'm in an elevator." He went bravely to the operation, not certain at all what its issue would be. He knew that his days of service were over, and that probably his life was ebbing out, but he burdened no one with a word of regret, and showed not the slightest fear. When the surgeons had done their work, their best, I asked: "How is it?" The answer was: "Cancer in the very worst stage—better far for him that he never come out of the anaesthesia." And he never did; he went up "in an elevator," and the angels were the bearers of it. The soldier-man of sixty-seven was the same hero as was the soldier-boy in his teens, marching with Joe Johnston.

Friends and loved ones and loving ones, his late parishioners from Laurel, his clerical brethren from the towns and cities and country places, as well as a large company of kinsfolk, gathered to his burial.

He died on Wednesday, July 30th, 1:30 p. m., in the Sanitarium at Newton, having removed from the parsonage at Laurel to his own house at Newton, a week before. He was buried from the Church in the cemetery at Newton, July 31, 1913.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH, TO BE HELD AT NATCHEZ, DECEMBER 3, 1913:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—Simpson Jefferson Tubby, formerly a member of the Indian Mission Quarterly Conference, and having surrendered voluntarily his credentials as a Local Deacon, through fear that he had violated the civil law, but lately having satisfied himself and the Quarterly Conference of the aforesaid charge that he was not blameworthy in the matter, and having resided in the bounds of said charge for all the years since the surrender of his credentials, and having been re-licensed to preach by the District Conference ad interim Licensing Committee of the Newton District, is hereby recommended to the Mississippi Annual Conference for the restoration of his credentials, believing that the welfare of the Church would be promoted thereby.

Report No. 2 of the Board of Education was read, amended, and adopted, as follows:

REPORT NO. 2 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH:

DEAR BRETHREN—We are glad to report that there is a growing interest in the educational work of the Church throughout its bounds, and that campaigns are being waged for the improvement of property and endowment of our institutions of learning.

The Bulletin of the Vanderbilt University shows the register of the institution and presents the general status of the University in a favorable light.

The report of Dean Tillett, of the Theological Department of the Vanderbilt University was before us, and shows an enrollment of 106 students in theology, representing 32 Annual Conferences.

Millsaps College is in a prosperous condition under the administration of Dr. Watkins, with an attendance well up with the average of former years.

The dormitory of the Preparatory School, consumed by fire some months ago, has been replaced by a better one.

We call attention to Major Millsaps' recent generous gift to the Endowment Fund of several buildings in the city of Jackson, Miss., valued at not less than $150,000.00.

An urgent need of our College is a dormitory for the students of the College Department, where boarding expenses may be reduced to the minimum. We heartily favor the inauguration of a campaign to procure funds for this improvement and commit ourselves to the raising of $30,000.00 for this purpose, which with the $30,000.00 proposed by the North Mississippi Conference, will provide the necessary funds.

We request the appointment of Dr. A. F. Watkins to the Presidency of Millsaps College, and the election of M. L. Burton as trustee, vice A. F. Watkins, resigned.

We request that the application of the Training School of Millsaps College for recognition in "Class A" of secondary schools be endorsed by the Conference.

We recommend the appointment of J. W. Chisolm as student in Millsaps College.

We offer for your adoption the following memorial relating to the educational standard for candidates for admission:

WHEREAS, The educational requirements of candidates for admission on trial into the traveling connection has been raised but little, if any, in the past thirty or forty years; and,

WHEREAS, During this time facilities for securing an education have greatly increased; and

WHEREAS, Our Methodist people, as well as the general public, are extensively and generously patronizing the schools and colleges of the country, and, therefore require and demand an educated ministry, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Mississippi Conference hereby memorialize the General Conference to take the necessary steps to require of candidates for admission on trial the satisfactory completion of a course of instruction equivalent to that required by the Commission on Education for admission to the Freshman class of an "A Grade" College.

We respectfully ask that you endorse the following memorial to the General Conference relating to the classification of our schools;

WHEREAS, The Discipline of our Church makes provision for three classes, and only three classes, of educational institutions in our Church;

WHEREAS, The Discipline makes it the duty of the Board of Education to classify all the educational institutions of the Church; and,

WHEREAS, There are a number of institutions of the Church which are neither universities, colleges, nor academies; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Mississippi Conference memorializes the General Conference to be held in May, 1914, to make provision for a fourth class of institutions which give as much as two years of standard college work. They may be called Junior Colleges.

The report of Port Gibson Female College was before us, and indicates that the institution is in a fairly prosperous condition.

We recommend that the President of Port Gibson Female College be authorized to act as Financial Agent for the College, with a view to the payment of the indebtedness on the "annex" to the College. We hereby appropriate to Port Gibson Female College $300.00, or such part thereof as the Agent may fail to raise, for the liquidation of the debt on the "annex," with the full understanding that no other appropriation is to be asked for improvement or investment in property.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. C. M. Chapman as President of the College, and the election of the following as trustees: H. T. Butler, Mr. Hutchins, J. S. Purcell, P. D. Hardin, and J. M. Mcrse.

The report of the Mississippi Conference Training School shows that the condition of that institution is the most prosperous in its history.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. T. J. O'Neil as President, and the election of the following Trustees: W. W. Moore, W. A. Hays, W. W. Graves, J. A. Moore, C. C. Evans, A. M. Broadfoot, H. F. Telle, P. L. Blackwell, W. C. Lamb, C. F. Neill, J. T. Gammage, J. W. Abney, G. J. Lightsey, M. H. Turner, and Dr. W. H. Mars.

It is recommended that the Board of Trustees change their charter so that their members shall have one-third of their number elected each year, leaving two-thirds undisturbed at a time.

It is the judgment of your Board that our Conference Training School located at Montrose should be instructed to continue in its recognized relation to the other institutions in our Conference system of educational institutions for the present, and pending the proposed action by the General Conference providing for Junior Colleges.

The annual report of Whitworth College was submitted to us and we are pleased to note that our leading College for girls continues to prosper. The recent completion of the Mary Jane Lampton Auditorium and of the President's home, add much to the value of the property and the attractiveness of the campus. Your Board approves the application of Dr. Cooper, President, to the General Board of Education for the recognition of the College in "Class B."

We request the appointment of Dr. I. W. Cooper as President of the College, and that L. L. Roberts be appointed Financial Agent in connection with whatever pastorate he may be appointed to serve.

We ask that the Conference endorse the views of the Board with reference to appropriations for educational purposes as voiced in the following:

That henceforth it should be the policy of the Board and of the Conference not to make appropriations for the material improvement of any educational institution.

The report of the Seashore Divinity School was submitted for our information, and we are gratified at the good work that is being done by this summer school in the interest both of the undergraduates and of the older preachers of the patronizing Conferences.

We recommend that hereafter no appropriation shall be made for the expenses of the Conference Secretary of Education.

In view of the prospective meeting of the General Board of Education in Nashville, we request that the Executive Committee of this Board be authorized to arrange for the representation of this Board in such meeting, and to provide for the expense of such representation.

We request that M. F. Adams be appointed student in the Trinity College.

We ask you to endorse a campaign looking to the support of a ministerial student by each District of the Conference.

Our newest educational institution, Seashore Campground School has surpassed the expectation of its President in point of patronage and results attained. We ask that Rev. H. W. VanHook be appointed to the Presidency of the School.

The interest of Paine College was ably presented by Mrs. J. D. Hammond, and we heartily commend the work that is being done for the Negro race in this institution.

Bishop Candler called J. R. Jones to the chair and requested leave of absence for the presiding elders that they might meet him for consultation.

The report of the Epworth League Board was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

During the past year there has been a decided development within the Epworth League and over four hundred new chapters, having a membership of seven thousand have been chartered. Twenty-five Annual Conference meetings and inter-conference assemblies have been held during the past summer, of which the latest was organized during the past summer at Lake Junaluska, and was largely attended by Leaguers from a number of States. In addition to the four thousand weekly prayer meetings held by our young people throughout the Church, these larger gatherings constitute a remarkable phenomenon of vitality and efficiency. That our young people themselves with little aid from our pastors, sometimes discouraged by those who should be their leaders are able to carry on this work is remarkable and full of promise for the Church.

Last year the minutes of the annual conferences reported over $30,000.00 raised by the Leaguers as missionary specials. Of this amount $10,000.00 went toward the building of Candler College, Havana, Cuba, thus enabling the Church to meet the conditions of the munificent gift of Mr. Asa Candler, and thus provide for the supply of the greatest need of our mission in Cuba—an institution for the education of a native ministry in the Island Republic.

The provision for the support of the Central Office continues to be embarrassingly inadequate, and the effort of the General Secretary to raise the amount necessary for the promotion of the work is to be commended to our people to whom he may appeal.

The literary equipment of the League has been substantially augmented by the publication of a number of excellent pamphlets and by a thorough revision of the Hand Book. "The Story of the Old Testament," by Prof. Frank Seay, and "Introducing Men to Christ," by Dr. W. D. Weatherford, continue to enjoy popularity and usefulness as Epworth League text-books. The Epworth Era has now a larger circulation than for several years, and in its monthly magazine form is better than ever meeting the need of the Leagues for a journal of communication and a means of help in all departments of the work.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Epworth League will be celebrated by the holding of a great international convention in the city of Buffalo, July 2-5, 1914. This is expected to be the greatest of the series of great inter-national conventions that have been held. Strong delegations should be sent from all parts of our Church.

The Mississippi Conference Epworth League is again under the Presidency of Mr. W. D. Hawkins, of Meridian; and the next annual session will be held about mid-June, in the city of Meridian. We commend to our pastors this indispensable means of furthering the young people's work. Without a vigorous meeting of this kind the League work languishes. The Seashore Epworth League Assembly will hold its fifteenth annual session at the Seashore Camp Ground, Biloxi, the latter part of July. No more fruitful field than that opened by this assembly has been cultivated. It has never been largely attended by our ministers, but we trust that now under the presidency of Rev. C. N. Guice, it may have the hearty support of our ministry and be largely attended by our pastors.

Last year the statistics showed a small gain in membership and a loss in the number of chapters. The figures for this year do not indicate a recovery from these losses, but further loss. In compliance with the directions in our Discipline there should be organized a League in every congregation. This is a perfectly feasible undertaking, and we urge upon our pastors their speedy availing themselves of this excellent means of caring for the spiritual, social, and mental life of their young people, and their training in the work of the Church.

H. W. VAN HOOK, President.

B. W. LEWIS, Secretary.

The report of the Directors of the Seashore Divinity School was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF THE SEASHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

TO THE ALABAMA, THE MISSISSIPPI, THE NORTH MISSISSIPPI AND THE LOUISIANA CONFERENCES:

DEAR BRETHREN—We, your Board of Directors of the Seashore Divinity School, beg leave to submit the following report:

The session of the School last summer was very gratifying. The attendance was considerably larger than the year before. The lectures were inspiring and edifying to all who heard them. The attendance upon the four Undergraduate classes was larger than ever, and faithful work was done both on the part of the instructors and the students. At the close of the School the Dean awarded a large number of certificates to those who had successfully passed their examinations.

The School continues to grow in influence, and we believe it is greatly helping our preachers. At the close of the session, Bishop Candler publicly said: "There is a great need for this School. I hope that more and more of our ministers from these Conferences, and from a distance, will come to it. You are doing a great work." Bishop Candler has lectured at the School and heartily endorses what is being done there.

It is the purpose of the Board to have at least one of our own Bishops on the program every summer, and to secure only the best talent for the lectures.

We sincerely hope that all the under-graduates, as well as the older preachers, will attend the session next summer. And we wish to urge again upon all the Presiding Elders the importance of doing all in their power to make it possible for the preachers to attend. We respectfully request that they do not hold any District or Quarterly Conference in conflict with the session of the School.

Next year, there will be a committee to instruct and examine those who seek admission on trial into any of the four Conferences.

We request the Boards of Education of the four Conferences to appropriate for the maintenance of the school not less than the amount they appropriated last year.

Respectfully submitted,
 (Signed) R. R. ELLISON,
 Secretary Board of Directors.

Dr. George S. J. Browne, Agency Secretary of the American Bible Society, was introduced and addressed the Conference.

The report of the Joint Board of Finance was read, amended, and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Your Joint Board would make its annual report as follows:

The right to a comfortable support inheres in the Gospel ministry.

This right does not cease when one is retired from active service.

The ministry of today has entered into labors of the ministry of the past. Therefore, the obligation rests upon us to provide for them a comfortable living. It is now becoming a world thought to properly provide for aged workmen of all professions, both brain workers and manual laborers.

Many railroads and other secular corporations pension liberally their worn-out laborers.

The British Liberal Party, led by the present Premier, Mr. Asquith, has made it possible to pension moral and industrious but enfeebled working men and in 1912 there were 942,160 persons receiving pensions from the government in the total amount of $62,075,000.00.

Our great Church has grasped the thought and is now endeavoring to properly care for her retired preachers.

We have now a connectional-corporate body known as the Board of Trustees of the Superannuate Endowment Fund of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. This Board is now drawing annual interest on $275,000.00. The Mississippi Conference share of this interest for the year 1913 is $285.00, which added to the amount collected from the several districts has been distributed to our claimants.

This Board is enabled by the one per cent endowment plan to add $20,000.00 annually to this Connectional Endowment

Your own Conference Endowment Fund, through bequests and memorials, now amounts to $20,000.00 To this we are adding about $1,000.00 annually.

During the last two years through the Galloway Memorial Fund, we have added $1,000.00 to the Conference Endowment.

If we shall continue as steady an increase for the next two years, the interest on the $25,000.00 will be available annually to be applied to the needs of our Superannuates.

All the Board asks is co-operation upon the part of the pastors—not a few but all—and the day will not be far distant when the Mississippi Conference will be able like our Methodist Episcopal brethren to retire our old preachers on half the average pay of an active preacher.

The Committee appointed at the Board Meeting of last year consisting of Revs. B. F. Jones, W. W. Moore, and W. D. Domineck to prepare an equalization plan for more just distribution of our funds, concluded their work, and the Secretary has been instructed to mail out during the year special blanks calling for information from the various claimants in furtherance of the plan.

These blanks must reach the Secretary at least one month before the meeting of the next Annual Conference.

The Secretary has been instructed by the Board to send all assessments for which the Joint Board is responsible to the Presiding Elders previous to the meeting of the District Stewards.

In accordance with previous instructions by the Joint Board, the Secretary prepared a list of names of those who could be on the Board, but who had not heretofore drawn appropriations, hence, there will appear in the lists of claimants this year the names of Mrs. C. G. Andrews, Mrs. Martin Bell, and Mrs. F.M. Williams.

The Board recommends the election of the following as trustees of the Mississippi Conference Endowment Fund:

C. W. Crisler, S. A. Tomlinson; J. M. Morse, T. J. O'Neil, W. H. Saunders, N. B. Harmon, T. B. Lampton.

Your Board unanimously agreed to continue co-operation with the Conference Endowment Board to increase the Galloway Memoria Fund and indorsed the selection of Rev. T. J. O'Neil as Financial Agent of that Fund. The Board recommends the 4th Sunday in April as Gallo-way Memorial Day.

The thanks of the Board are due the Shubuta charge which through Rev. B. F. Jones paid the largest amount for the year to the Conference Endowment Fund, amounting to $130.00.

The Board recommends the continuation of the quarterly payment plan and asks that you appoint the first Sunday in March as Veteran's Day, when the collection for Superannuates shall be taken and forwarded to the Treasurer, S. A. Tomlinson, at Gulf Port, Mississippi.

The apportionment for the claimants for the ensuing year is as follows:

Mrs. G. G. Andrews.....	$ 25.00	Mrs. W. B. Lewis.....	100.00

REPORT No. 2 OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE, OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH:

BRETHREN—We rejoice in being able to report that substantial progress had been made during the year, in our Sunday-School work.

We note with gratification that all over the Conference much progress has been made toward a more perfect organization in accordance with the disciplinary requirements and the plans of our General Sunday School Secretary, as brought out prominently in our most excellent literature.

Your Board would urge all pastors and superintendents to do their utmost to the more perfect organization of the schools.

After a test of more than a year, we find that the services of a skilled and well equipped Field Secretary has been justified and in order to continue this advanced step, greater liberality on the part of the Church is necessary.

Brother R. A. Maddox has shown himself to be well equipped for the work of Field Secretary, and we most heartily commend him to the pastors throughout the Conference, and we implore all to heartily co-operate with him.

The report of the American Bible Society Board was read and adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

DEAR BRETHREN—Your Board for the American Bible Society reports as follows:

The ninety-seventh year of the history of the American Bible Society brings us near enough to the end of our century to stimulate activity and awaken the desire to make the last years the best years.

The past year has not been a lean year, either in point of opportunity or accomplishment. The life of modern nations has opened the door wider than ever before the advent of the Bible, and made it possible as never before to send it forth on its mission in the languages of the earth.

Nations long dormant have suddenly arisen to new life and convictions of duty, and new hopes. The sudden and extraordinary national movement in China, and scarcely less the war in the near East, betokens wonderful changes in the conditions of mankind. The presence and power of God Himself seems singularly manifested. Under such circumstances His Word has surely had free course and been glorified.

The total issue at home and abroad amounts to 4,049,610 volumes. These consist of 399,734 Bibles, 713,891 New Testaments and 2,935,985 portions of the Scriptures. The cash receipts of the Society during the year have been on the whole, satisfactory, showing an increase of $19,583.62. The total receipts available for current work amount to $602,966.49. The total expenditures for the year amount to $757,942.75. The distribution of Scriptures in the United States and its Island possessions during the year amount to an aggregate of 1,825,511 volumes. The number of volumes sent to foreign lands is 282,511. The total issue of the Society during the ninety-seven years of its existence amounts to 98,268,715 volumes.

There is no doubt about the wonderful help given foreign missionary workers by the various translations of the Scriptures made by the American Bible Society, and the home workers commend the provision made by the Society in giving the Word of God in the many languages of the incoming millions of emigrants. The Treasurer's report shows our contributions for this year to be $1,050.92. We recommend an assessment of $1,000.00 for the year 1914 and apportion it as follows:

Brookhaven District.....	$150.00
Hattiesburg District	150.00
Jackson District.....	150.00
Meridian District.....	150.00
Newton District.....	150.00
Port Gibson District.....	125.00
Sea Shore District.....	125.00

If the assessment has been reduced a trifle, it was to inspire courage in attempting to pay in full, and to put our cause of Christian work on a basis of equality. We recommend that the collection for the American Bible Society be taken in the early part of the year, and that the collection be put on its own merit.

(Signed)

C. M. CHAPMAN, President.

H. L. NORTON, Secretary.

Reports Nos. 2 and 3, of the Board of Missions were read, and adopted.

REPORT No. 2, OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE:

DEAR BRETHREN—We, your Conference Board of Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

No year perhaps since the Civil War has witnessed more distressing financial conditions than those which have prevailed this year throughout the bounds of our Conference, especially in the western section, and in consequence we announce with no little regret a considerable shortage in our missionary collections. We report this year for Home and Conference Missions, $9,629.50 on an assessment of $13,200.00; and $8,785.79 on an assessment of $12,100.00 for Foreign Missions. Specials reported $7,141.47, making a total of $25,556.71.

In our day the Church is confronted with the greatest opportunity for missionary effort ever known in the history of Christianity, and if we will but hearken we can hear a many-voiced cry similar to that which St. Paul heard at Troas, saying, "Come over into Asia, come over into Africa, come over into the isles of the sea and help us."

The thrilling and inspiring message brought to us by Dr. W. W. Pinson, our General Secretary, regarding conditions in the Orient, particularly in the New Republic of China, ought to fire our hearts with new missionary enthusiasm and spur us to a forward movement. Nowhere are more stupendous changes taking place than in China, long known as "the slumbering Giant of the East," but which is now beginning to keep step to the march of western civilization. The request for prayer for the new Republic sent out by the officials of China last April to the Churches of Christendom has scarcely a parallel in history.

How greatly we need a world-vision in order to get rid of narrowness and selfishness and bigotry. John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, but re-echoed the parting command of our Lord when he said, "The world is my parish."

If the chief business of the Church is not to evangelize the world, then it has no real mission and is little better than a fraternity, or a social club, organized and conducted for the entertainment of its members.

Dr. W. W. Pinson, our General Secretary, in his report to the Annual Conferences, says: "The progress and enlarging opportunities of the work call loudly for an increase in the force of missionaries, and the urgent need for better equipment continues and grows more serious. We sent out during 1912 thirty missionaries,—eleven men and nineteen single women. We have spent in building and equipment a total of $61,700.00, not including woman's work. The year is signalized by the opening of our Congo Mission and the sending of three missionaries and their wives.

It is a deplorable fact that the present average contribution of Southern Methodists for the world's evangelization is only about 48 cents per member per annum. How long shall we be content with this low average, when the needs are so great, and when other churches are so far out-stripping us? Is it not high time for us, as a Conference, to sound an advance in missionary offerings and endeavor?

We respectfully urge upon our pastors the importance of circulating missionary literature among our people, particularly our well-edited magazine, the "Missionary Voice," which ought to be put into every Methodist home. Nothing is truer than that missionary intelligence and missionary liberality go hand in hand.

Let us not fail to develop our Sunday-Schools and Epworth Leagues along missionary lines, as provided for by the Discipline and by the Sunday School Board and our General Board in a wisely planned missionary policy. This is a field whose wondrous possibilities we are just beginning to realize. We recommend that the funds raised in the Sunday School for missions be kept separate from the regular assessment and be used either as a surplus, or as a "special."

We rejoice in the good degree of success which is attending our work among the sailors at Gulfport in connection with "Sailors' Rest" located there. Three hundred ships from all parts of the world visit this port annually, having on board over five thousand sailors. The "Rest" is a home for them while there. During the past three years thirty-one thousand, three hundred visits to its reading rooms have been made by sailors and officers; the attendance on the Gospel services has reached over eight thousand; nineteen hundred visits have been made to ships; four hundred and fifty services have been held; two hundred and twenty-five needy sailors have been helped; and three thousand Gospels and books in different languages, besides a vast amount of other literature, have been distributed.

We respectfully recommend the re-appointment of Rev. W. T. Griffin as Superintendent of our Gulf Coast Missions for the ensuing year.

We are gratified to note that the labors of our Conference Evangelists, Revs. D. E. Kelly and I. L. Peebles, have been singularly blessed of God. Hundreds have been converted under their ministry, and added to the Church, and many other good results have attended their labors. W: recommend the re-appointment of Revs. D. E. Kelly and I. L. Peebles as Conference Evangelists for 1914.

We congratulate the good women of the Woman's Missionary Society upon their aggressive spirit and upon the excellent work they are doing. May the Lord abundantly bless their labors and so multiply them as to make them as many more as they are.

We are gratified to note the growing interest in our Conference in the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Let us as pastors co-operate heartily with our laymen in their plans for larger and better things.

Our Laymen have done wisely in selecting Prof. G. L. Harrell as Conference Lay Leader for 1914.

We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. M. M. Black as Conference Missionary Secretary for 1914.

As we enter upon a new missionary campaign, may each of us realize, as never before, the fact that greater than our need of increased offerings and more workers, is the need of prayer to Him who is able to do for us, exceedingly above all we can ask or think. Failure at this point is the greatest failure of all. Why should we not all unite daily in prayer for our missionaries and missionary enterprises at home and abroad, and for larger offerings the coming year? Has not the Master said: "If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it?"

We respectfully request our pastors to read this report to their respective congregations the Sunday following its publication.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. SULLIVAN President.

M. M. BLACK, Secretary.

A Testimonial From a Lady of Experience in School Work

During the past twenty years I have been connected with the faculties of six of the best Colleges in the South, and during the time, I resided in the schools. For several years I was Lady Principal of the institution with which I was connected, and so consider myself well prepared to judge of what a school should be. I can say, without mental reservation, that "Whitworth" compares most favorably in every respect, with any one of the schools of which I have spoken. I wish especially to commend the "Whitworth" faculty which I believe is unexcelled by any in this section of the country. The atmosphere of both the religious and social life of Whitworth, is exceptionally fine. The School is a "home" for girls in the best and truest sense of what a home should be. It affords me great pleasure to recommend Whitworth College.
